MARIA (to Captain Von Trapp)

I know you don't know your children, but you've got to. Take Liesl - Liesl isn't a child any more. And if you keep treating her as one, Captain, you're going to have a mutiny on your hands. And Friedrich - Friedrich's afraid to be himself - he's shy - he's aloof, Friedrich needs you - he needs your confidence. Brigitta could tell you about him. She could tell you a lot more if you got to know her, because she notices things. And she always tells the truth - especially when you don't want to hear it. Kurt is sensitive - he's easily hurt - and you ignore him - you brush him aside the way you do all of them. (The CAPTAIN starts to leave.) I haven't finished yet! Louisa wants to have a good time. You've just got to let her have a good time. Marta I don't know about yet but someone has to find out about her. And little Gretl just wants to be loved. Oh, please, Captain, love Gretl, love all of them. They need you.

CAPTAIN Von TRAPP (to Maria, first meeting)

I'm Captain von Trapp. You are Fraulein Maria? Now, Fraulein, as to your duties here. You will be in charge of my children. There are seven of them. You will find out how far they have progressed in their studies and carry on from there. Each morning will be spent in the classroom. Each afternoon, they march. You will see that at all times they conduct themselves with decorum and orderliness. The first rule in this house is discipline. Children, this is your new fraulein, Fraulein Maria. As I sound your signal you will step forward and repeat your name. You, Fraulein, will listen and learn their signals so that you can call them when you want them.
